

Switching Between Accounts in McKesson SupplyManagerSM

Managing multiple accounts and locations can be tedious, but McKesson SupplyManagerSM makes it easy to switch between your accounts. Simply select your account in the upper right-hand corner of your screen and, in the drop down, select “Switch” beside your location to change accounts.

Once you select “Switch,” you will see the screen below where you can select “Continue” to choose another account. You can search by account number, account name, city, state or zip code. Then, you can select the account you want.

If you want products delivered to a different location you can select it from the list. Please note, you cannot add a new delivery destination from here. Please call Customer Service at 855.571.2100 to add new delivery destinations.
